Course Topics

You will cover five main topics as part of your CELTA course:

Topic	Areas
Learners and teachers, and the teaching and learning context	This topic includes: understanding the cultural and linguistic backgrounds of learners, and how this might affect their learning of English understanding different learning styles and preferences.
Language analysis and awareness	This topic includes: understanding key terminology used in English language teaching, applying this terminology in planning and teaching demonstrating a working knowledge of English grammar, lexis and phonology.
Language skills: reading, listening, speaking and writing	This topic includes: understanding basic concepts and terminology used for describing reading, listening, speaking and writing skills, applying this to teaching understanding how approaches to texts may vary depending on the purpose, making practical use of this in teaching.

Planning and resources for different teaching contexts

This topic includes:

understanding the purpose and principles of planning for effective teaching selecting and planning the kinds of lessons that are most appropriate for particular learners evaluating lesson preparation and reflecting on this for planning future lessons.

Developing teaching skills and professionalism

This topic includes:

effectively organising the classroom, both in terms of layout and pair/group activities making appropriate use of a range of materials and resources involving learners of different ability levels, enabling them to feel a sense of progress.

How you will be assessed

You will be assessed throughout the course and there is no final examination. The two types of assessment are:

1. Teaching practice

You will teach for a total of 6 hours, working with adult classes at a minimum of two levels of ability. Assessment is based on your overall performance.

2. Written Assignments

You will complete four written assignments (each 750–1,000 words). These focus on:

analysing and responding to adult learner needs analysing language for teaching purposes teaching language skills reflecting on classroom teaching.

Enrollment Process

The process for enrolling:

1. Request for an application via email or walk-in to our academy for a hardcopy (as a word document).
2. All interested trainees must complete the application form. There is NO application fee.
3. Send your application form to tl@malayaneducation.com.my or you can submit it by hand to our main centre in Sutera Utama.
4. After reviewing your application, a member of our enrollment team will follow up by email and send you an assignment called the Pre-Interview Task.
5. Once we have received your Pre-Interview Task, we will schedule a time for an interview that is convenient for you. Most interviews are conducted via Skype, telephone or face-to-face at our main centre. Before the interview, you would have to make a payment of RM169.60 (inclusive of GST) to us.
6. During the interview, you have the opportunity to speak to a CELTA trainer. The trainer will discuss your work from the Pre-Interview Task to gain a better understanding of your potential for English Language Teaching. The interview also provides an opportunity to speak with an enrollment advisor about the enrollment process and payment options.
7. After acceptance, you must pay a RM1060 (inclusive of GST) enrollment deposit to confirm your place on the course (subject to availability—given on a first-come, first-served basis).
8. The balance of your course fee is due no later than four weeks before the beginning of the course.
(Please see: Course Fees for more details)
9. There is a rebate on the interview fee for all successful applicants who have paid their fees in full.
